MARLBOROUGH RUGBY

The Inside Track

Firstly, a huge welcome to all spectators today. It seems like an age since we last entertained at home. We are now about to embark on a run of four home fixtures out of the six games we have remaining. Our ambition remains undimmed as we pursue promotion for both senior teams. Plenty of spills and thrills are likely this afternoon. When we travelled to Tottonians, it was a hard-fought away win, so a tasty encounter awaits today!

A special welcome to the head coach of Tottonians, his squad of players, support team, and travelling supporters. We all know they will endeavour to end our unbeaten record.

Congratulations to Will Reeve and Joe Pittams, who both produced "man of the match" performances away to Witney RFC and Newbury Blues.

Winning is becoming a habit for this senior group of players in both the 1st and 2nd XV. Good luck to the 2nd XV, who are away to Devizes this afternoon; bring it home, boys.

A priority this afternoon must be our being ruthless in our decision-making when opportunity presents itself, coupled with game management, especially when we are lacking momentum during the game.

The players continue to work hard in training. We are all aware of the challenges we face.

WELCOME INSPIRE EXCEL

MARLBOROUGH RUGBY

Maintaining a positive atmosphere will be crucial as the pressure of expectation builds. I'm confident this is a tight group that will rise to any challenge.

Our opponents today are a good side; they will treat this as a cup game, trying to force an upset on our unbeaten home and league records. We are all looking forward to the challenge. Starting well and earning the right to play will be key.

We need to do the basic things well and stay in the moment throughout the 80 minutes.

One to watch this afternoon is Adam Neal (4) in the second row. Known as "Nealy" in the squad, he relishes the contest and the nitty-gritty of the game. He is efficient around the park and reads the game very well. We're looking for Nealy to impose himself at the breakdown, coupled with dominance in defence, as a of the opposition ball at the lineout. You'll also hear him encouraging the pack loudly.

Our match official today is Bretton King. Thank you for taking the game and good luck, sir.

As always, a huge thank you to all involved in making today happen, especially our valued sponsors.

Enjoy your afternoon.

Occupation zone general builder at a housing association

Position– back row/lock

Sponsored by McWilliam Farriery

What age were you when you first played rugby and for which club?

I was 9 years old and it was my home town of Abingdon .

Why did you choose rugby over other sports?

I was a big lad when I was younger and my brother-in-law was a coach and he got me into it .

What other clubs have you played for before joining Marlborough.

Oxford Harlequins, Henley, Newbury, Trowbridge .

When did you join Marlborough and why?

I'm new to area and had to find a club that was a good fit for me and also knowing and previously playing with the captain, Oliver helped my decision half way through a season lol.

What is your proudest moment on the pitch?

Being a 2x, division 3 county winner with Oxfordshire, but the second time was special for me as I was captain of Oxfordshire and winning it .

What is your most embarrassing moment on the pitch?

Being beat 100–5 by UWIC uni in preseason.

What professional team do you support and why?

London Irish, I have great memories going to the Madejski stadium and not a lot memories of the Saint Patricks day games; there was a lot of beer going round.

Who is your all time rugby hero?

Schalk Burger

Which two people (living or dead) would you most like to go out for a few beers with and why?

Mickey Flanagan just because of the laughs.

Sir Winston Churchill—he could put the booze away and also enjoyed a cigar.

What are you most likely to be caught doing on the field that you shouldn't be doing?

Inspecting rucks.

A top tip for a young player?

Playing rugby is not forever, so do it with a smile and enjoy it while you can because your going be a long time retired from the game.

What hopes do you have for yourself and the team this season?

Consistent performances on the field and to lay the foundations for next season.

History was finally made

Last Saturday, Marlborough finally chased their demons away and won at Newbury in front of their very vocal and loyal supporters.

Newbury were the first to score points; a penalty kick nine minutes into the game gave them the lead. It continued to be an end-to-end game for the first fifteen minutes, with both teams eager to assert their dominance in the game, when Marlborough won a penalty at the breakdown. Grant kicked the ball forward, inside the Newbury 22, and the forwards got to work. Seko broke through a tackle to cross the whitewash for Marlborough's first try of the game, which Grant converted.

Possession and field position continued to be traded between the two teams, with Newbury taking another penalty kick to bring the score to 6-7.

Marlborough had a period of sustained pressure, but it was the home side who would score again after a lineout on the halfway line. The ball was chipped over the top, and a good chase led to a penalty against Marlborough for holding on in the ruck. The penalty was taken quickly, Newbury bundled the ball over the line, and the conversion was successfully kicked.

This turned into a period of the game that the Marlborough supporters know only too well, as after an infringement at the back of the scrum, Will Grant saw yellow, and Marlborough were down to fourteen men. This seemed to galvanise the players, and Jack Lynd drove Marlborough into the opposition's 22, where the pack then edged their way towards the line, before the ball found its way to Will Reeve, who evaded a tackle to cross the line. Reeve then kicked the extras: Newbury 13–14 Marlborough.

The second half started brightly for Marlborough, who within minutes crashed over the line, but unfortunately, the ball was held up. Marlborough’s dominance strengthened, and the ball was snaffled up by Toti, who offloaded to Lynd to carry once again. It was then passed out to Aka, who beat his opposite number and finished well in the corner. Grant nailed the conversion.

Marlborough used Simon Pilkington in the front row and Kieran Brown in the back row as replacements. The next twenty minutes went to Newbury, who were now throwing everything they had at the game. There was some fantastic defensive work from every man in black and amber that ensured Newbury didn’t cross the line again until the sixty fifth minute. Another yellow for Marlborough went to Adam Neal. Newbury took the penalty lineout option and were over two phases later. The game was now well and truly in the balance: Newbury 20–Marlborough 21.

Marlborough needed a breakthrough, Grant kicked deep from the kick-off, and a good chase forced Newbury to kick the ball out, giving Marlborough a lineout just inside the Newbury half. Another carry by Lynd got Marlborough going before it was given to the backs, where the ball eventually landed in Aka’s hands, who ran in to score his second try of the game. On the sixty seventh minute, the scoreboard showed Newbury 20–Marlborough 26.

This seemed to turn the tide of the game completely; Marlborough had their tails up and were looking to land the knockout blow. A kick over the top from Will Reeve and a great chase from a number in black and amber caused Newbury to take the ball over their own line. The Marlborough pack showcased their scrum dominance yet again, even with a man still in the bin, to win a penalty five metres out. They chose to tap the ball, where, after an initial false start from Meki, some good tight carries led to Simon Pilkington crashing over the line. Marlborough had some breathing room, the players believed this was theirs for the taking, and the supporters could finally relax—well, a little bit.

After what seemed like an eternity and Marlborough receiving another yellow, finally the whistle blew! Marlborough had finally done it—they had beaten the 'Blues' at home. Newbury 20 – Marlborough 31.

Marlborough's Rugby Sponsorship Proves a Score Draw

When it comes to keeping up with who's winning during competitive fixtures, supporters of Marlborough Rugby definitely know the score thanks to a new deal signed by the club.

As part of its sponsorship with the table-topping side, rural full fibre broadband provider Gigaclear is providing a new electronic scoreboard so supporters can keep an accurate tally of how many points are scored during matches.

Gigaclear, which is currently extending its full fibre broadband network to more than 4,400 homes and businesses in the town, has agreed to sponsor the rugby club's mini and junior section with a series of fun 'challenges' staged regularly throughout the season.

Amanda Palmer, Youth Chair at Marlborough Rugby, welcomed Gigaclear's support of the club and said the Minis and Juniors were set to benefit from Gigaclear's involvement.

She said: "It's been a great season so far for Marlborough Rugby with the first team posting some very impressive scores that can only serve to inspire and motivate our younger members. Gigaclear's sponsorship of our fun challenges will undoubtedly encourage them further. We recognise the importance of fast and reliable broadband for many homeowners and businesses these days and therefore we welcome the company's efforts to extend its full fibre network in the town."

Gigaclear's Head of Marketing Andy Brotherton said: "We're really pleased to be able to support Marlborough Rugby and am sure it is just the start of a long and fruitful relationship. We recognise the valuable role the rugby club plays at the heart of the wider Marlborough community, and we are keen to support the club's efforts."

As part of the sponsorship, eligible members and supporters will be offered free full-fibre broadband for six months, followed by a special deal of 400Mbps at £20 per month for 18 months. Anyone wishing to find out if their property can connect to the Gigaclear network, should visit www.gigaclear.com and use the postcode checker.

THE 1871 CLUB

The 1871 Club is the social arm of Marlborough Rugby. All proceeds from membership and other fundraising activities go directly to support the promotion of rugby for the whole family in the Marlborough area. With a growing playing base of boys and girls, supporting them is very important to the Club and we do what we can to see the growth of junior rugby.

The 1871 Club gets its name from the club's heritage. In 1871 Marlborough Nomads (along with 20 other Clubs, including Blackheath and Richmond) met to form the Rugby Football Union in a restaurant in Pall Mall, London.

Each year there are a full range of social activities, some connected directly to rugby, some less so. The main aim is to have a great time with friends and other club members whilst supporting Marlborough Rugby.

Anyone can be an 1871 Club member including those who have either played for the club and/or have contributed to the development of Marlborough Rugby. Also, anyone in the Marlborough area who wants to meet up with others who share a common passion for rugby and who wants to support the development of the game for the whole family.
